

Sailing to a sustainable future

a roadmap to competitive and zero emission freight sailing

Invitation startmeeting

wednesday 24 October 2012

The Interreg IVB
North Sea Region
Programme

Conference with international experts from Europe on sustainable (freight) shipping

Wednesday 24 October 2012

Hotel Galamadammen

Galamadammen 1-4, Koudum, The Netherlands

www.galamadammen.nl/en/

Programme

- 08.30 Reception and Registration
- 09.00 Welcome by the vice governor of the Province of Fryslân.
- Introduction Sail by the project manager Mr. Anne de Vries.
 - Prof. Capt. Michael Vahs Maritime department HS Emden Leer (DE) 'Wind Propulsion for Cargo Ships – Performance Parameters and Operational Aspects'.
 - Mr. Gavin Allwright, Commercial Director of the greenheart project UK/Japan 'a solar- and wind-powered sailing ship to creating a new model of clean, cooperative and sustainable enterprise'.
 - Coustea Turbo Sails (FR) the development of revolutionary Flettner Rotor powered cargo ship. (to be confirmed).
 - Mr. Patrik Mossberg Director Operation Private shipping company Marininvest Goteborg Sweden plans for new alternative propulsion (flat rotor panel) ships.
- 11.00 Coffee/tea break.
- 11.15
- Mr. Eelco Leemans Director of the North Sea Foundation Clean Shipping (NL) index and international agreements.
 - Mr. Gerard Dijkstra Founder Amsterdam (NL) Naval architecture and marine engineering of classic and modern performance shipping.
 - Prof. Frank Willems Hanze institute of Technology Groningen (NL) social media & crowd sourcing for the realization of hybrid sailing concepts.
 - Mr. Jan Dijkstra/Marcel Pruyt/Jorne Langelaan? Den Helder (NL) Fair transport the hybrid freight ship in practice 'the Ecoliner'.
- 13.00 Forum Discussion.
- 13.30 Press conference.
- 13.30 The end of the conference/lunch break.