

Pre-Announcement

Interreg IVB project SAIL will organize her
Working Session and final conference

‘DEAD RECKONING to Hybrid Shipping’

For more information click here

SAIL or Ecoliners

Wednesday, 22 April 2015

Venue: Deltares, Delft, The Netherlands

REGISTER HERE

WHAT WE HAVE

- Optimized hulls and riggings
- Velocity prediction data
- Performance data
- End consumers valuing sustainable transport
- Tribe managers making it happen
- On longer term rising oil prices
- Finance of financial gaps; European programs

WHAT WE WANT

- First movers in freight
- First movers amongst ship owners
- Builders of the first ship
- The REAL LIFE TRIAL: first Ecoliner for measuring performances
- Low carbon shipping

This conference is free of charge.

This SAIL conference is integrated in the BlueWeek 2015, from 20 to 22 April 2015. The BlueWeek is hosted by Deltares in Delft and co-organized by MARIN. It provides a platform to discuss sustainable energy in shipping and offshore. We recommend you to join the Public seminars regarding ‘Marine Renewable Energy’ and ‘Natural Propulsion’ on Tuesday 21 April.

European Union
The European Regional Development Fund

The Interreg IVB
North Sea Region
Programme

provinsje fryslân
provincie fryslân

www.nrsail.eu

Pre-Announcement

Wednesday, 22 April 2015

Chair: Robbert van Hasselt, project leader of SAIL

09.00	Reception and registration
09.30 09.40	Kick off <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opening Mrs Netelenbos: Royal Association of Netherlands Ship owners, (KNVR).TBC Introduction SAIL, Robbert van Hasselt, IDMM, Project leader
09.55 10.00 10.05 10.10	Facts and findings from SAIL, four pitches <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Technical performances; lift, drag and wind potentials Economic feasibility of hybrid sailing Hybrid sailing, emission reductions and policy Entering the market, about finding and committing freight owners and ship operators
10.20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A short introduction of the new Interreg V, NSR program
10.30	Coffee/Tea break. Interactive sessions with SAIL experts, small stands per theme.
10.45	Stepping stones to hybrid sailing Program under construction, contributions from US, Japan, Europe and the South Pacific are in preparation
11.30	Creative co-makerSHIP ‘DEAD RECKONING’ to Hybrid Shipping Process design and identify stepping stones Sailing into the future  <pre> graph TD O[Operators] --- WASP[WASP] FO[Freight owners] --- WASP C[Consumers] --- WASP I[Investors] --- WASP </pre>
12.30	Closure with ☺

For any questions please contact: Robbert van Hasselt, +31 62 8657841, r.v.hasselt@idmm.nl or Brigitte Feenstra, +31 (0)58 29251 32, b.t.feenstra@fryslan.nl

This SAIL conference is integrated in the BlueWeek 2015, from 20 to 22 April 2015. The BlueWeek is hosted by Deltares in Delft and co-organized by MARIN. It provides a platform to discuss sustainable energy in shipping and offshore. We recommend you to join the Public seminars regarding ‘Marine Renewable Energy’ and ‘Natural Propulsion’ on Tuesday 21 April.